

HT PACE LITERATURE & CULTURAL FEST

18 DECEMBER 2023

Suncity School collaborated with The Hindustan Times and took the pleasure and privilege to welcome host a spectacular show of talents - the HT Pace Literature & Cultural Fest 2023! This fest's endeavour was to nurture human potential by embracing its diverse capabilities and it also kept with the theme and spirit of our ongoing session: Uketamo- Acceptance to the core.

HT Pace inter-school event was a celebration of literature and culture. The fest provided a platform to test the students' potential and their ability to steer through the environment of competition and imbibe the learning along the way. It was an extension of our School's firm commitment to students' holistic development to enable them to nurture their strengths optimally.

Our Director, Mrs Rupa Chakravarty welcomed the distinguished judges and revered guests, which included Mr. Ankur Sharan, Mr. Varun Swarup, Mr Samar, Ms Nandita, Ms. Juhi Agarwal, Ms. Manisha Kohli, Ms. Arpita Debashree and Ms Roopali Dhawan. The guests were felicitated with planters and tokens of our gratitude. The program started with lamp lighting.

The fest included five events:

- Sway n Sync (Dance Competition)
- Artful Strokes (Calligraphy Competition)
- Visual Chronicles (Graphic Novels Workshop)
- Cover Craft (Book Cover designing Workshop)
- Rhythm & Beats (Beat boxing, Drumming, Djembe, Flute Workshop)

The participants were divided into three different groups on the basis of their grades:

Group 1 - Participants from grades III to V

Group 2 - Participants from grades VI to VIII

Group 3 - Participants from grades IX to XII

There was competition in 2 categories - Sway n Sync (Dance Competition) and Artful Strokes (Calligraphy Competition). The results for the two competitions were declared during the Valedictory ceremony after the competitions.

The results are as follows:
