

■ Ryanites took part in a mock session of the United Nations

■ Mahender Singh Vashisht was feted for his work for the poor.

Model UN to debate pressing issues and competition to celebrate music

DAV PUBLIC SCHOOL, SECTOR-49, GURUGRAM

Students of DAV Public School, Sector-49, Gurugram, enthusiastically participated in 'Inclusion@Anveshan 2018', a national-level inter-school competition, held at LTG Auditorium, Mandi House. The participants enthralled the audience with a number of melodious songs. They spread the message of love, equality, compassion and benevolence for mankind. It was a moment of great pride for the school when the music composed by music teacher Gurubachan and his team comprising Rakesh and Yogesh were given the award for the 'Best Music'. The competition was tough, as 8,340 students from all over India took part at the event, but DAV Public School managed to steal the show. The winners were felicitated by George Abraham, a blind visionary; Charu Maini, principal, DAV Public School, Sector-49, and Lata Vaidhanathan, director, Made Easy School, Gurugram.

SUNCITY SCHOOL, SECTOR-54, GURUGRAM

Suncity School, Sector 54, Gurugram, organised the 8th edition of the inter-school competition, 'Multiple Intelligence - Mime'. Over 160 students from 11 schools of Gurugram participated in the competition. The chief guest of the event was Sunita Nagpal, principal, Delhi Public School, Sushant Lok. The competition 'Mime' is a first-of-its-kind initiative, and has been meticulously designed in sync with Howard Gardner's Theory of Multiple Intelligence. The platform provides an opportunity for students to explore and evaluate their intelligence traits. The competition was judged by an eminent panel, including Sunita Nagpal, Mansi Goel and Rupa Chakravarty. Children from 'Akshar Foundation', a non-profit organisation, were also invited. "Our objective for this competition is to provide an extra nudge to our students to hone the skills of all eight intelligences and elicit the best from within themselves," said Rupa Chakravarty, principal, Suncity School.

SCOTTISH HIGH INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL, SUSHANT LOK II, GURUGRAM

Another feather in the cap was added for Scottish High International School, Gurugram. At the North India Educator's Summit 2018 by Education Today, held at Taj City Centre, Gurugram, the school bagged the trophy for the "Best International School". School chairman CDR Kartikay Saini shared the stage with Padma awardee Shayama Chona, as the chief guest. Saini was also honoured with the award for 'Visionary of Year 2018' by Education Today. Ranveer Singh Saini, a student of Scottish High International School, bagged the 'Sportsperson of the Year 2018' award.

RYAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL, SOHNA ROAD, GURUGRAM

Students of the school brought laurels in the Ryan Faridabad Model United Nations (RYLMUN), 2018. Around 250 delegates from Delhi-NCR participated in the event. Students of Ryan International School were delegates of Israel. The school principal Peeya Sharma appreciated the enthusiastic efforts of the students in bringing to life the chairman's vision who believes that every Ryanite is the harbinger of change. He encouraged students to become global ambassadors, carrying the message of peace, brotherhood and unity. The conference offered an excellent platform for students from diverse backgrounds to interact with one another on global issues.

The conference comprised different committees highlighting various agendas in an institution like the General Assembly. The question of governance of the non-self-governing territories, recent development of the Iranian Nuclear programme, reviewing the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action were discussed. Overall, RYLMUN-2018 was an enriching experience for the young delegates to work together to promote peace and human development projects to negotiate for a better world order and to transform themselves into ambassadors of peace and harmony.

■ Suncity School organised 'Mime', a unique competition to develop multiple intelligences among students.

■ Scottish High was awarded the 'Best International School' trophy by Education Today at the North India Educator's Summit.

ST. BRIJ MOHAN LAL SR. SEC. SCHOOL, ANANGPUR ROAD, FARIDABAD

Mahender Singh Vashisht, principal, St. Brij Mohan Lal Sr. Sec. School, Anangpur Road, Faridabad, was felicitated at a function at the Indian Society of Law, near the Supreme Court, New Delhi. The function was honoured by various dignitaries from India and Nepal which included first vice president of Nepal, Justice Paramanand Jha; Sharmanand Suman, the former ambassador, Embassy of Nepal in Qatar; Bishnu Hari Nepal, the former ambassador to Japan; Advocate A P Singh, personal secretary to the Chief Justice of India; chairman of NAFED India; convener of Indo-Nepal Samrasta March, Mahavir Prasad Tordi and secretary Kuldeep Sharma.

Mahender Singh Vashisht was presented with the 'Shikshak Shri' award by Justice Paramanand Jha, the first vice president of Nepal. He was presented with a certificate, medal, shawl and a pagdi was tied as an honour. He was recognised for his contribution to the educational field. In his life, Vashisht used the latest scientific way of amalgamating moral and natural sources of teaching to promote children's education. Dr Vashisht was recognised for his selfless dedication to the upliftment of most needy and under privileged sections of the society, for which he has been awarded and appreciated even in the past on various occasions. He is undoubtedly an asset to people of Faridabad, especially because of his services to the cause of socio-economic welfare of the poor.