

|                    |                                |
|--------------------|--------------------------------|
| Publication        | TOI-Gurgaon Times              |
| Language/Frequency | English/Daily                  |
| Page No            | 06                             |
| Date               | 25 th November 2017 |

Two students of Suncity School, Gurgaon, Vignesh Deshpande and Anmol Das along with their faculty member Soma Dam, met Prince of Wales, Prince Charles at the British Council after winning India-UK cultural quiz competition. The students defeated over 200 contestants from 35 schools to ace the competition. In the final round, they defeated six schools. The school authorities also lauded the students for their ef-

Suncity School, Gurgaon

orts. "This is a great achievement, we are proud of Anmol and Vignesh. We, at Suncity School, have always stressed on holistic development of students. Co-curricular activities hold relevance as they hone key personality traits. I would like to congratulate the team who made the school proud," said Rupa Chakravarty, school principal. Prince Charles was on a two-day visit to India as a part of a 10-day four-nation tour along with his wife Camilla Parker Bowles, Duchess of Cornwall. The visit aimed at augmenting bilateral ties between the India and United Kingdom. Organised by the British Council, India-UK cultural quiz saw over 200 contestants participating from 35 schools across Delhi-NCR. The participants were quizzed on the history, culture, tradition, the prominent sportspersons and personalities, music, movies, business, brands and the literature of the two countries. The competition was among the host of activities organised by the British Council to commemorate 2017 as 'Year of Culture' for India-UK relations.